

Viewing the Hawaiian Skies

Our thanks to Sam Rhoads for bringing in his (huge) telescope so we could see Mercury, Jupiter, and View the Hawaiian Skies from the Waikoloa beach. It was not exactly a cloudless evening but many people managed to see the planets at dusk, and it was a great delight to be able to see the stars every night.